

1. Write a type of animal according to what it eats (Herbivore, Omnivore, Carnivore).

Example:

Photo by Free-Photos. Source: pixabay.com

HERBIVORE

Photo by Aggraphy. Source: pixabay.com

Photo by Alpcem. Source: pixabay.com

Photo by Nockwell1. Source: pixabay.com

Photo by Pexels. Source: pixabay.com

Photo by Robertgreene674. Source: pixabay.com

Photo by darksouls1. Source: pixabay.com

2. Match the predator with its prey.

Example:

PREDATOR

PREY

Source: MS Word 3D models

Source: MS Word 3D models

PREDATOR

Photo by Pexels. Source: pixabay.com

PREY

Photo by Buntynum. Source: pixabay.com

Photo by Robertgreene674. Source: pixabay.com

Photo by Alexas_Fotos. Source: pixabay.com

Photo by Aqgraphy. Source: pixabay.com

Photo by GregMontani. Source: pixabay.com

Photo by doanme. Source: pixabay.com

Photo by Alpcem. Source: pixabay.com

3. Write T if a sentence is true. Write F if it is false.

Example: A snake is a predator for a mouse. T

Herbivores eat meat. _____

A mouse is prey to a cat. _____

Sharks are the tallest animals in the world. _____

Tigers have sharp teeth. _____

Giraffes can grip on to tree branches. _____