

Name: _____

Class: _____

Slovakia

1. Match the beginnings of the sentences on the left with the correct endings on the right.

Judicial power

has more power than the president.

The prime minister state

represents executive power in a

Parliament

monitors obeying the laws.

Executive power

has power to make and change laws.

Government

is the author of the Slovak national anthem.

Janko Matuška

has power to put laws into action.

2. Create and draw your own Slovak national symbols and think about the reason why you chose them as symbols of Slovakia.

A large, empty square box with a thin red border, intended for drawing a national symbol.A large, empty square box with a thin red border, intended for drawing a national symbol.

3. Work with your partner. Try to translate the first stanza of the Slovak anthem into English.

Slovak

English translation

Nad Tatrou sa blýska
Hromy divo bijú
Zastavme ich, bratia
Veď sa ony stratia
Slováci ožijú

Name: _____

Class: _____

The key

1. Match the beginnings of the sentences on the left with the correct endings on the right.

Judicial power	→	has more power than the president.
The prime minister	→	represents executive power in a state
Parliament	→	monitors obeying the laws.
Executive power	→	has power to make and change law.
Government	→	is the author of the Slovak national anthem.
Janko Matuška	→	has power to put laws into action.

2. Create and draw your own Slovak national symbols and think about the reason why you chose them as symbols of Slovakia.

3. Work with your partner. Try to translate the first stanza of the Slovak anthem into English.

Slovak

Nad Tatrou sa blýska
Hromy divo bijú
Zastavme ich, bratia
Veď sa ony stratia
Slováci ožijú

English translation

There is lightning over the Tatras
Thunders sound loudly
Let us stop them, brothers
For they will also disappear
The Slovaks will revive